Jubilarians: We send our prayers and warmest best wishes to Fr John Joe Maloney who celebrated the 60th year of his ordination to the Priesthood on the 21st June, and to Fr Michael Gallagher also celebrating his jubilee - ad multos annos, vivant!

Peter's Pence: Next weekend there will be the Annual Peter's Pence collection. Offerings are designated for the Pope's apostolic and charitable ministry. If you would like to donate direct, there is a Poster on the Noticeboard with a QR Code that you can use.

Readers: We have an URGENT need for more Readers for Saturday's Vigil Mass. If we can get two or preferably three more people, it would only mean you having to read once every five or six weeks. Please give it some consideration so that others are not left reading several times in a month. If you can volunteer for this Ministry, please, speak to Fr. Joel, or email Nora - details below!

A reflection from Pope Francis for the Year of Prayer, on the Twelfth Sunday of the Year: Three parables in Luke's Gospel emphasize how we need to be constant in our prayer. In the first a man asks for help from a friend in the middle of the night and does not give up until his friend responds; in the second a widow persists in asking the unrighteous judge for justice; in the third a publican and a Pharisee pray in the Temple. We see these three attitudes – insistence, patience and humility – reflected in the saints who persevered in prayer; may we persevere in prayer conscious that we never pray alone, but with Christ himself, in the power of the Holy Spirit.
